

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest...

And their attempt to influence the election by airing an Anti-Kerry opinion piece disguised as fact (the so-called Stolen Honor piece) and not airing a piece like Fahrenheit 9/11 to balance, shows they only consider some Americans' opinions valid.

They should not be pontificating at all. Please shut down this blatant attempt at hijacking the airwaves for one-sided political gain.
